

BANG OVERSEAS LIMITED

INSIDER TRADING- CODE OF CONDUCT

1) Introduction

Insider trading means trading in Securities of a company by its Directors, Designated Persons or other Insiders based on unpublished Price Sensitive Information. Such trading by Insiders erodes the investors' confidence in the integrity of the management and is unhealthy for the capital markets.

The Securities and Exchange Board of India (SEBI), in its endeavor to protect the interests of investors in general, had formulated the Securities and Exchange Board of India (Prohibition of Insider Trading) Regulations, 2015 (Regulations) under the powers conferred on it under the SEBI Act, 1992. These regulations shall be into force with effect from One hundred and twentieth day from the date of its publication in the official Gazette and the same is applicable to all listed companies.

Regulation 3 of the Regulations, which prohibits insider trading is quoted below:

- (1) No insider shall communicate, provide, or allow access to any unpublished price sensitive information, relating to a company or securities listed or proposed to be listed, to any person including other insiders except where such communication is in furtherance of legitimate purposes, performance of duties or discharge of legal obligations.
- (2) No person shall procure from or cause the communication by any insider of unpublished price sensitive information, relating to a company or securities listed or proposed to be listed, except in furtherance of legitimate purposes, performance of duties or discharge of legal obligations.
- (3) Notwithstanding anything contained in this regulation, an unpublished price sensitive information may be communicated, provided, allowed access to or procured, in connection with a transaction that would:—
 - (i) entail an obligation to make an open offer under the takeover regulations where the board of directors of the company is of informed opinion that the proposed transaction is in the best interests of the company;
 - (ii) not attract the obligation to make an open offer under the takeover regulations but where the board of directors of the company is of informed opinion that the proposed transaction is in the best interests of the company and the information that constitute unpublished price sensitive information is disseminated to be made generally available at least two trading days prior to the proposed transaction being effected in such form as the board of directors may determine.
- (4) For purposes of sub-regulation (3), the board of directors shall require the parties to execute agreements to contract confidentiality and non-disclosure obligations on the part of such parties and such parties shall keep information so received confidential, except for the purpose of sub-regulation (3), and shall not otherwise trade in securities of the company when in possession of unpublished price sensitive information.

In line with the above and in order to comply with the mandatory requirement of the Regulations, it was necessary to formulate a specific Code of Conduct for Bang Overseas Limited for use by its Directors and Designated Persons.

This document embodies the Code of Conduct for Prevention of Insider Trading and the Code of Corporate Disclosure Practices ('Code') to be adopted by Bang Overseas Limited and followed by their Directors, and Designated Persons.

2) Effective date

- c. Limited access to the confidential information:-Files containing confidential information will be kept secure. Computer files will have adequate security of login and password etc.

7) Chinese Walls

6.1 General

Bang Overseas Limited has established policies, procedures and physical arrangements (collectively 'Chinese Walls') designed to manage confidential information and prevent the inadvertent spread and misuse of inside information, or the appearance thereof. Management shall understand where Chinese Walls have been set up or where they are needed according to this Policy or local requirements.

In general, Chinese Walls separate areas that have access to Inside Information (“Insider Areas”) from those who do not have such access (“Public Areas”). As such, Chinese Walls are designed to operate as barriers to the passing of Inside Information (Unpublished Price Sensitive Information) and Confidential Information. Chinese Walls are also designed as a means of managing Conflicts of Interest.

Where Chinese Walls arrangements are in place employees/designated persons working within an Insider Area are prohibited from communicating any Confidential or Inside Information to employees in Public Areas without the prior approval of the Compliance Officer.

Employees within a Chinese wall have a responsibility to ensure the Chinese Wall is not breached deliberately or inadvertently. Known or suspected breaches of the Chinese Wall must be referred to the local Compliance Officer immediately.

Management shall ensure that appropriate policies, procedures and physical arrangements are implemented for the relevant businesses and that these are complied with by all affected employees/designated persons.

The establishment of Chinese Walls is not intended to suggest that within Insider Areas material, Confidential Information can circulate freely. Within Insider Areas, the 'need-to-know' policy is fully in effect.

6.2 Procedure to Cross the wall:

Any person who needs to cross the Chinese Walls as defined in the organization by the Management, shall first seek a prior approval of his departmental head for crossing such wall and having an access or providing an access to such confidential Information which do not come under his area of Operation.

8) Prevention of misuse of “Unpublished Price Sensitive Information”

All directors/officers and designated persons of the company will be subject to trading restrictions as enumerated below:-

- A) No director, officer and designated employee of the company shall trade in the Company's securities while the Trading Window is closed.

The trading window shall be closed when the compliance officer determines that a designated person or class of designated persons can reasonably be expected to have possession of unpublished price sensitive information for a period of 7 days prior to the day on which the Unpublished price sensitive information is published and the trading window shall open not earlier than 48 hours after the information becomes generally available.

The trading window will be closed, inter alia, at the time of:-

- a. Declaration of financial results of the Company (quarterly, half-yearly and annual).
- b. Declaration of Dividend (Interim & Final)
- c. Issue of securities by way of public/ rights, Bonus etc.
- d. Any major expansion plans or execution of new projects.
- e. Amalgamation, mergers, takeovers and buy back.
- f. Disposal of whole or substantially whole of the undertaking.
- g. Any changes in policies, plans, operations of the company.

In case of ESOPs, exercise of option may be allowed in the period when the trading window is closed. However, sale of shares allotted on exercise of ESOPs will not be allowed when trading window is closed.

- B) All directors / designated persons who buy or sell any number of shares of the company shall not enter into a contra trade i.e. sell or buy any number of shares during the next six months following their prior transaction. All directors/ designated persons shall also not take positions in derivative transactions in the shares of the company at any time.
- C) All Directors, Designated Employees of the Company intending to deal in the securities of the Company upto the threshold Limit as defined, may do so without any pre-clearance. In all other cases, they should pre-clear the transactions as per the procedure prescribed in the code.

9) Pre-Clearance of Trades

All directors/designated Persons of the company who intends to deal in the securities of the company above the threshold limit should pre-clear the transactions as per the pre-dealing procedure as described hereunder.

An application may be made in Form I to the Compliance Officer indicating the estimated number of securities that the designated employee/ officer /director intends to deal in, the details as to the depository with which he has a security account, the details as to the securities in such depository mode and such other details as may be required by any rule made by the company in this behalf.

An undertaking (Form I(a)) shall be executed in favor of the company by such designated persons / Director /officer incorporating, inter alia, the following clauses, as may be applicable:

- That the director/designated person does not have any access or has not received “Unpublished Price sensitive information” up to the time of signing the undertaking.
- That in case the employee/director/officer has access to or receives “Unpublished Price sensitive information” after the signing of the undertaking but before the execution of the transaction he/she shall inform the Compliance Officer of the change in his position and that he/she would completely refrain from dealing in the securities of the company till the time such information becomes public.
- That he/she has not contravened the code of conduct for prevention of insider trading as notified by the company from time to time.
- That he/she has made a full and true disclosure in the matter.

All directors/designated persons shall execute their order in respect of securities of the company within one week after the approval of pre-clearance is given or before closing of Trading Window, whichever is earlier. If the order is not executed within one week after the approval is given, the employee/ Director must pre-clear the transaction again.

The Compliance officer shall retain copies of all applications and acknowledgements. In exceptional circumstances consent may not be given if the Compliance officer is of the opinion that the proposed deal is on the possession of any unpublished price sensitive information. There shall be no obligation to give reasons for any withholding of consent.

In case the sale of securities is necessitated by personal emergency, the compliance officer may waive the holding period after recording in writing his/her reasons in this regard. An application for waiver of holding period shall be made to the Compliance officer in Form II

Some of the grounds of rejection of Pre-clearance could be as under-

In case the Insider is having a prior knowledge which is not in public domain relating to the following, the Approving Authority may refuse the pre-clearance during the black-out period:-

- Periodical financial results of the Company;
- Intended declaration of dividends (Interim and / or Final);
- Issue of Securities or Buy-back of Securities;
- Any major expansion plans or execution of new projects;
- Amalgamation, merger or takeover;
- Disposal of the whole or substantially the whole of the undertaking;
- Any significant changes in policies, plans or operations of the Company having material impact on the financials of the Company;
- Significant alliances, joint ventures etc.;
- Any Capital Structuring e.g. bonus, sub-division etc

10) Trading Plans

An insider shall be entitled to formulate a trading plan and present it to the compliance officer for approval and public disclosure pursuant to which trades may be carried out on his behalf in accordance with such plan.

This option is given to a person who may be perpetually in possession of unpublished price sensitive information. Such a person would formulate a Trading plan for trading in securities to be executed in future which will enable him to trade in securities in a compliant manner. Thus when a person is in possession of unpublished price sensitive information when a trade under a trading plan is actually executed would not prohibit the execution of such trades that he had pre-decided even before the unpublished price sensitive information came into being.

Such trading plan shall:–

(i) Not entail commencement of trading on behalf of the insider earlier than six months (the cool-off period) from the public disclosure of the plan;

NOTE: In any case, it should be remembered that this is only a statutory cool-off period and would not grant immunity from action if the insider were to be in possession of the same unpublished price sensitive information both at the time of formulation of the plan and implementation of the same.

(ii) Not entail trading for the period between the twentieth trading day prior to the last day of any financial period for which results are required to be announced by the issuer of the securities and the second trading day after the disclosure of such financial results;

(iii) Entail trading for a period of not less than twelve months;

(iv) Not entail overlap of any period for which another trading plan is already in existence;

(v) Set out either the value of trades to be effected or the number of securities to be traded along with the nature of the trade and the intervals at, or dates on which such trades shall be effected; and

(vi) not entail trading in securities for market abuse.

(3) The compliance officer will review the trading plan to assess whether the plan have any potential for violation of these regulations and shall be entitled to seek such express undertakings as may be necessary to enable such assessment and to approve and monitor the implementation of the plan.

(4) The trading plan once approved shall be irrevocable and the insider shall mandatorily have to implement the plan, without being entitled to either deviate from it or to execute any trade in the securities outside the scope of the trading plan. Provided that the implementation of the trading plan shall not be commenced if any unpublished price sensitive information in possession of the insider at the time of formulation of the plan has not become generally available at the time of the commencement of implementation.

(5) Upon approval of the trading plan, the compliance officer shall notify the plan to the stock exchanges on which the securities are listed.

11) Reporting requirement for transaction in Securities

The following disclosures to the Compliance Officer:-

(1) Initial Disclosures.

- (a). Every promoter, key managerial personnel and director of every company whose securities are listed on any recognized stock exchange shall disclose his holding of securities of the company as on the date of these regulations taking effect, to the company within thirty days of these regulations taking effect;
- (b). Every person on appointment as a key managerial personnel or a director of the company or upon becoming a promoter shall disclose his holding of securities of the company as on the date of appointment or becoming a promoter, to the company within seven days of such appointment or becoming a promoter.

(2) Continual Disclosures.

- (a). Every promoter, employee and director of every company shall disclose to the company the number of such securities acquired or disposed of within two trading days of such transaction if the value of the securities traded, whether in one transaction or a series of transactions over any calendar quarter, aggregates to a traded value in excess of ten lakh rupees or such other value as may be specified;
- (b). Every company shall notify the particulars of such trading to the stock exchange on which the securities are listed within two trading days of receipt of the disclosure or from becoming aware of such information.

Explanation. — It is clarified for the avoidance of doubts that the disclosure of the incremental transactions after any disclosure under this sub-regulation, shall be made when the transactions effected after the prior disclosure cross the threshold specified in clause (a) of sub-regulation (2).

Disclosures by other connected persons.

(3) Any company whose securities are listed on a stock exchange may, at its discretion require any other connected person or class of connected persons to make disclosures of holdings and trading in securities of the company in such form and at such frequency as may be determined by the company in order to monitor compliance with these regulations.

12)Penalties for Non-Adherence

Directors, Officers and designated employees of the company, who trades in securities or communicates any information in contravention of the POLICY shall be liable to disciplinary action and may be penalized. Such penalty may include warning, wage freeze, suspension, and/ or ineligibility for future participation in ESOPs etc., as may be decided by the Management on a case to case basis.

BOL may cause an Employee who has violated any provisions of the POLICY to disgorge of profits made or likely to have been made.

BOL reserves the right to terminate the services of any Employee who violates any provision of the POLICY.

Over and above any penalty that BOL may impose on an Employee who indulges in Insider trading, he/she may also be liable to such penalty/prosecution/proceedings as SEBI may impose.

13)Information

In case it is observed that there has been a violation of the aforesaid Regulations, the Compliance Officer shall intimate SEBI of the same. This Policy may be amended or replaced from time to time, and such amended or replaced Policy shall immediately apply to all Employees and their Dependent Relatives.
